

Kindly translate and have posted at once (Could you find me a train
You might also give this to a Coe

allow me here and now to extend to each and every one of you kind souls my undying
and sincere gratitude for all the kindness, generosity and very warm feelings showered
upon me during that visit - may God Bless you.

And now we must dedicate and regard ourselves against the possibility of another swimy occupation and ^{the} necessity of an allied invasion ~~we~~ again of your grand ^{and glorious} ~~and glorious~~ Country.

All is well with me, and I can only dream of another visit with you - but Oh!
how wonderful it would be to see all of you dear people again.

LETTER TO
RENAUDS FOLLOWS

Most Sincerely,
John "du Clocher" Steele

↑ *